Finding Peace is the third book in the Finding series. While characters and some storyline arcs overlap between books, they can easily be read as standalones. Although I'll warn you, if you start with a book later in the series, you'll end up pulled into this world and go back to read about all the couples you meet in p

Finding Peace (Finding, #3) by Sloane Kennedy - Goodreads

Finding Peace is book two in a series, but it can be read as a standalone. This is the story of Alyssa and Bentley. Alyssa has been in a long term relationship with Mike the "Tool" for many years. She is tired of living in a run down Mobil home when they had previously purchased land to build a house on.

Finding Peace (Finding Series, Book 3) About book: Gray murmured. "You never explored the property?" Luke asked as he double-checked to make sure the blanket was still covering Gray as much as possible. Although the temperature was well above freezing, he knew Gray's body couldn't afford to lose too much body heat.

Luke Monroe felt cold all over even though it was unbearably hot outside. Except his face - it just felt wet...again. Damn dog. If the mangy mutt wasn't licking his face, then it was going after any exposed skin it could find. He tried to roll away from the dog's sticky tongue but pain seared across his side and he bit back a moan.
